FULL TIME GOVERNESS JOB | HOLLAND PARK | LONDON
Salary: Negotiable

PHS Job 2284

A lovely family based in Holland Park, London are searching for a Live Out fluent English speaking Governess with several years of relevant pedagogical experience to look after and help develop their two girls (6 and 9 years old). The parents would like the governess to help with homework and engage in education based activities with the children. The ideal candidate for the live out governess job is expected to be flexible, positive and a genuinely positive person by nature.

We are looking for a Private Governess who enjoys developing children by employing a range of techniques and methods best suited to the children and their age group. Your everyday routine will incorporate helping with homework, reading and other development activities. After school tutors regularly visit the children at their home. Occasional simple cooking for the children will be required when the family chef is off.

Your day will normally start when picking up the children from school with the family chauffeur. Driving in London is not required however being a confident driver will increase your chances of success in your application as driving abroad when traveling with the family will be a bonus. However, if you are a strong educator and an applicant who has a strong background in education, the family can work around the driving aspect.

Traveling with the family is required during school holidays and therefore we are searching for a professional governess with flexibility in their life.

The family own two small dogs and we are therefore searching for a person who has no allergies and is dog friendly.
