LIVE OUT PART TIME HOUSEKEEPER JOB | BLACKMORE | ESSEX

Salary: 23-25 GBP per hour gross

PHS Job 2702

We are looking for a highly reliable and experienced part-time, live-out housekeeper for a permanent position in Blackmore, Essex. The household is located in a picturesque village, comprising a beautifully maintained property with four bedrooms, two floors, three bathrooms, and five spacious living areas. This is an informal household, where the family seeks someone to manage the daily housekeeping duties with flexibility, working 15-20 hours per week.

The home features premium materials such as marble, silverware, wooden floors, and expensive glass, all of which require meticulous care. The successful candidate will also be required to handle occasional wardrobe management and support with various ad-hoc tasks such as coordinating dry cleaning and shopping runs. While this is a family home, there are no pets, and a full-time nanny and gardener are already employed to assist with the day-to-day running of the property.

The housekeeper will have the autonomy to manage the household's organisation and cleanliness while maintaining attention to detail, ensuring that the home is always presented to a high standard.

The position offers a flexible working schedule, with 15-20 hours per week, and a competitive salary of up to £20,000 gross per year. The successful candidate will also enjoy holiday entitlement as part of the package. The role is expected to begin as soon as possible, offering a great opportunity for someone looking to work within a friendly and informal family environment.

This is an ideal opportunity for a dedicated housekeeper who is seeking a long-term, stable position in a friendly, informal household where independence, professionalism, and attention to detail are highly valued.
