

PERMANENT PART-TIME LIVE-IN ROTA NANNY JOB

LIVE-IN ROTA NANNY JOB | SOUTHSEA, PORTSMOUTH

Salary: starting from £25000 gross per year, depending on qualification

PHS Job 3033

A respectful and private family based in Southsea, Portsmouth, are seeking a reliable, disciplined, and patient part-time live-in nanny to care for a well-mannered 15-year-old girl while her father travels for work. Southsea is a charming coastal area within Portsmouth known for its seaside walks, Victorian architecture, and excellent amenities. This role would suit a nanny who is calm, consistent, and confident in supporting teenagers through this important stage of development. The successful candidate will possess a strong understanding of boundaries, teenage care, and ideally, GCSE curriculum knowledge in English and Maths.

Working as a professional nanny in a rota set-up requires responsibility, attentiveness, and strong communication. The nanny will be required to live on the property from Tuesday evening until Friday morning, preparing simple meals, maintaining the daily routine of the girl, and ensuring her behaviour aligns with the expectations set by her father. There are no after-school activities or allergies to accommodate, allowing for a calm and structured household rhythm.

The accommodation offered is within the family property and is comfortable and private, making this a particularly appealing live-in role for a candidate seeking a secure and well-appointed working environment.
