PHS Job 3035

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an outstanding opportunity for a professional and discreet Live-Out Housekeeper to join a fully staffed, elegant residence in the heart of Monaco. This contemporary penthouse apartment, situated in one of the principality's most prestigious neighbourhoods, offers refined interiors, a large terrace with stunning views, and a calm yet dynamic atmosphere reflective of the international family residing within.

The client, a warm and vibrant Canadian-Australian principal, lives with her family and is supported by a dedicated team comprising a live-in nanny, a private chef, and two housekeepers. The nanny has full responsibility for the care of the one-year-old child, and no childcare duties are expected from the housekeeper. The household is well-structured, highly professional, and respectful, creating a positive and welcoming working environment.

The property consists of five beautifully appointed bedrooms and five bathrooms across two floors, along with a spacious living area, a stylish lodge, and a generously sized terrace. Duties will include thorough daily cleaning, tidying and organising living spaces, wardrobe and inventory management (including clothing and jewellery), setting tables for formal and informal dining, preparing guest rooms, and assisting with occasional events and soirées. Ensuring that the household remains well-stocked, running errands, and assisting with the family's small dog—such as occasional walking or basic care—are also part of the role.

While the household chef is responsible for preparing meals for the family and staff, the housekeeper may occasionally be asked to prepare light meals or snacks, particularly for the baby, under guidance. A strong sense of discretion, professionalism, and flexibility is essential. The ideal candidate will be fluent in both English and French, comfortable
