

PERMANENT FULL-TIME NANNY POSITION | FILLINGHAM, LINCOLNSHIRE
SALARY: £35,000 GROSS PER ANNUM
PHS JOB 3187

Perfect Household Staff are delighted to advertise a wonderful opportunity for an experienced full-time nanny seeking a live-out position in the picturesque village of Fillingham, Lincolnshire. The role is based within a charming country residence surrounded by two acres of beautifully maintained gardens and a swimming pool — offering an idyllic setting for children to grow, explore, and play.

The family is warm, down-to-earth, and looking for a long-term professional who will become an integral part of their household. They would like to welcome a caring, organised, and energetic nanny who will provide a balance of structure, creativity, and fun. The position is ideal for someone who enjoys countryside living yet remains within easy reach of Lincoln's historic city centre, known for its stunning cathedral and friendly community.

The successful candidate will take responsibility for two young children, aged 2 and 3½, ensuring their daily routines run smoothly and supporting their emotional and developmental needs. The family values initiative and flexibility — during periods when they travel, additional time off may be arranged. A confident driver with their own car is essential due to the rural location.

This is a permanent, full-time nanny role for an enthusiastic childcare professional who loves engaging with children through creative and educational activities. The position involves all typical nursery duties, including preparing meals, organising age-appropriate games, and maintaining a safe and tidy environment. The nanny will also assist with light household duties connected to the children, ensuring the home runs efficiently day-to-day.

For more than fifteen years, Perfect Household Staff has been assisting professional nannies in finding exceptional private household positions across the UK. As one of the country's leading boutique domestic staffing agencies, we take pride in matching skilled childcare professionals with discerning families. If you are an experienced nanny seeking your next rewarding placement, our team would be delighted to assist you.

Only candidates who have the right to work within the UK will be considered for this role.
