PHS Job 3406

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a wonderful opportunity for a compassionate, patient, and reliable Nanny to join a warm and welcoming private household based in Maltby, Rotherham, South Yorkshire. The family consists of two adult principals and their 4-year-old daughter, who is a highly functioning child with additional needs. The household is organised, supportive, and focused on providing a stable and nurturing environment. This role would suit a caring and understanding professional who is attentive, physically active, and able to engage a young child through structured routines and age-appropriate activities, both at home and outdoors.

This is a live-out, part-time position set across Monday to Friday with a clearly structured schedule split between morning and afternoon shifts. The role involves both pre- and post-daycare support, including morning routines, drop-offs, afternoon pick-ups, and supervision until the parents return from work. Duties include engaging the child in developmental play, supporting attendance at local clubs and activities, and ensuring her wellbeing at all times. The family offers a well-equipped home environment, including a dedicated playroom, and the successful candidate will benefit from a smooth handover from the current nanny. The position is offered as formal employment with holiday entitlement. Due to the location and the nature of the role, a driving licence and own car are essential.

Working as a Nanny in this household involves providing consistent, attentive, and structured care tailored to the child's individual needs. The role requires a proactive and empathetic approach, with a strong understanding of routine, communication, and child development. The nanny will be responsible for supporting daily transitions, encouraging engagement in activities, and maintaining a calm and positive environment. This is a rewarding position for a professional who values building trust with both the child and the family, while contributing to the smooth running of daily routines.
